GARDEN OF HOPE PHOTO GALLERY

It all started with clearing up the muck.........
Raising a stink – to get the garbage corner converted into a compost pile (above) and the final result (right)

During.....
And a little after.....

The garden finally takes off.....\
The first fruit of the Garden…

Intern Lillie sharing garden work with the laundry crèche children
Intern Jaye at the expanding flower bed by the sit-out

The entrance by the gate (before) – slime, stagnating water, and a wasted space
Creating a new room with bamboo and art.....

Tree of Life with Swiftwash paw prints!

Dressing up a bare wall and window.
